

I will not leave you orphaned!

Loneliness. We have all experienced it, and many of us fear it. But are we ever really alone? Jesus says in today's Gospel, "In a little while the world will no longer see me, but you will see me; because I live, you also will live." Jesus is always with us! In the next weeks we will see how He remains with us. He promises to send us a witness, a friend, a helper. May we ask God to help us believe we are not alone and trust in His promises.

Praise our God, all nations; let your praise be heard. He has kept us alive and has not allowed us to fall. Psalm 66:8-9

Catholic Social Teaching

The Catholic Church has its own set of Social Teachings. Catholic Social Teaching was a response to the economic problems of the 19th century. The church believes ALL people, as children of God, possess a unique dignity, and we all have a responsibility to uphold this dignity of others and be good stewards of our planet. The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops have broken the social teachings into 7 themes.

Prayer of St. Thomas Aquinas

Grant me, O Lord my God,

a mind to know you,

a heart to seek you,

wisdom to find you,

conduct pleasing to you,

faithful perseverance in waiting for you,

and a hope of finally embracing you.
